Yes, another new year has arrived! In case you hadn't heard, 2011 has been christened 20-heaven, the year that dreams come true and inspirations are realised. We kind of like that, as at FAD we see ourselves as helping our clients do just that – turn their ideas into reality, creatively. On that note, we share our latest news with you in this issue and provide a sneak peek into all the exciting projects we've been involved in recently.

We look forward to working with you all again this year and wish you all the best for an uplifting and truly inspiring 2011!

New year news

MetroProp: Pretoria office branding

FAD is proud to announce that we were contracted to brand the new MetroProp satellite office in Pretoria. This project included the design and application of wallpaper and various display systems, including one that will be used to showcase MetroProp's latest rental properties. We were involved in the project from brainstorming to installation. We wish MetroProp all the best in their new office space and look forward to developing the brand further.

William Shakespeare's Richard III

We'll be paying homage to one of the world's greatest bards this month with a poster and programme design for William Shakespeare's Richard III, to be presented by AM Productions in association with the National Arts Festival and The Market Theatre.
